ARIZONA FIGHTS OVER COLOR LINE

Matter May Be Taken by Negroes to the Supreme Court.

Phoenix, Ariz., Nov. 24.-By a tie vote in the concention it has been de-cided that there will be no segregation as between white and negro children in the public schools.

Segregation in Arizona is a thing of recent years. Until the last half of the present decade it was not thought of because the negro element in the population was almost a cipher. Since then, however, there has been a rapid then, however, there has been a rapid becrease in the negro population until today he is a force in politics and has a large church and social organiza-tion. So strong is he in Phoenix that until the election for delegates to the constitutional convention he held the balance of power in all elections. And it is even more significant that the only ward in Phoenix dominated by a enly ward in Phoenix dominated by a regre is the only ward that voted for Republican delegates to the constitu-tional convention, whereas the wards, are nominally Republican in all elec-

A few months ago Phoenix got betind a legislative measure and secured the right to segregate public school children of the Caucasian and African taces. The city then built a splendid school for the negro children and secured two teachers.

Negro leaders here are with no exception childless. They with one voice spoke highly of the school and urged parents to patronize it, but, at first. to no purpose. For weeks the two ne-gro teachers employed by the city sat all day facing empty seats, while religiously each morning negro children applied at white schools for admittance and were refused.

The negro, however, at last learned that if his race was to receive any benefit from education, it would, smong other ways, be as teachers. Then it dawned upon him that the two teachers which the city had employed for his special benefit would be discharged unless their school was nationized. Then there was a notice-able attendance and today the negro school in Phoenix is well patronized. There are still many, however, who object to cause they are dealed the right to send their children to schools with white children, and these have not city ofused to cone into the fold, they had consistently kept the supreme court of the United States if that body will consent to hear it. Now that the con ention has, by on ly a tie vote (in order to enact a proposition into law in the convention it must carry) beaten the segregation idea, these negroes who oppose segre-gation are more than over anxious to fight cet the question in the courts. Prerefere, by this act the convention has possibly given to Arizona a heritage of litigation which was by no manner of means in the minds of the delegates when they voted as they

The chief objection to the segrega-en idea that developed upon the floor of the convention was that it properly a legislative function therefore, had no place within constitution. While friends of regregation admitted that this was well taken, and that there is already a law in Arizona providing for segregation, they urged that the presence of the provision within the constitution would have a tendency to settle the question once and for all and pave the may for that other big question which is sooner or later to make its appearance in Arizona—the segregation of white and the yellow races for

That this question, the segregation of the Japanese is bound to come, is a foregone conclusion among most of the members of the convention as well as among a majority of the territory's no stronger than its weakest organ. If there is weakness of stomach, liver or lungs, there is a weak link in the chain of life which may snap at any time. Often this so-called "weakness" is caused by lack of nutrition, the result of weakness or disease of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. Diseases and weaknesses of the stomach and its allied organs are cured by the use of Dr Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. When the weak or diseased stomach is cured, diseases of other organs which seem remote from the stomach but which have their origin in a diseased condition of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, are cured also.
